

Minehead U7's Vs Burnham On Sea

On Sunday October 9th MBRFC U7s travelled to Burnham-On-Sea. MBRFC had 3 teams of 5 to face Burnham's 7 players. All 3 matches were evenly matched.

The White Stags played first and several tries were scored: George Hall (5), Harry Cottrell (1), Harry Swann (1), Toby Beadell (1) and Sam Cobb. The team played well and used their pace to score tries through the gaps they created in the Burnham defensive. Player of the team was George Hall for his evasive skills and fantastic support play.

The Pink Stags played next with a debut match for Harriet Bruford and Billy Kelly. Again some excellent rugby was played and several tries scored: Isabelle Skinner (2), Daisy Maitland-Walker (1), Billy Kelly (1), Isla Sapsford and Harriet Bruford. The team worked hard despite coming up against a more physical Burnham team. Player of the team was Billy Kelly for his enthusiastic first match and creative try.

The Black Stags were last to play with a debut matches for Jacob Stanbury and Marley Smullen, the team was and tries scored: Jack Cockrum (7), Noah Antonelli (1), George Dalziel, Jacob Stanbury and Marley Smullen. The team showed the best defensive of the day keeping the pressure on Burnham. Player of the team was Jack Cockrum for his powerful running and ability to find space.

Tagger of the day was Marley Smullen for his commitment in defence and incredible tagging.
